Ref: 20222293_1945-19 Location: Barcelona (Spain) Fees: 5900 GBP

Why This Course

In today's public sector and governance environment, policy decisions are shaped by complexity, competing interests, limited resources, and growing public expectations. Leaders involved in public policy must be able to analyze issues rigorously, engage stakeholders effectively, make sound strategic choices, and communicate recommendations with clarity and influence. Strong policy leadership is essential for turning ideas into actionable and sustainable outcomes.

This intensive 1-week course equips participants with advanced skills in public policy analysis and leadership. Participants will learn cutting-edge techniques for policy evaluation, stakeholder engagement, and strategic decision-making. The course combines theoretical frameworks with practical applications to prepare leaders for the complex challenges of modern public policy.
